John W. Bubbles - LP (John William Sublett - February 19, 1902 – May 18, 1986)

Promotional copy

1053	Bubbles, John W.	Bubbles Blues/Someone to watch over me	Vee Jay 624 (US) Promo	8.1964
1424	Bubbles, John W.	Bubbles Blues/Someone to watch over me	Vee Jay 624 (US)	8.1964

Leon plays piano on both tracks. "Bubbles Blues" is a great Leon track! The bluesiest piano you have ever heard from him.

On track 2 is a nice choir! Together with Ford L. "Buck" Washington, Bubbles was part of the vaudeville duo "Buck and Bubbles" (piano and tap-dance).

Bubbles created the role of Sportin' Life in Gershwin's opera "Porgy and Bess" in 1935.

Promotional DJ copy

1420	Bubbles, John W.	My mother's eyes/Without a song	Vee Jay 671 (US)	1964

Leon on piano on both in the background and on 1 he does a nice outtro!